

Code Of Ethics

Boji Solutions staff abide by the following Code Of Ethics.

As a member of my profession and of Boji Solutions I shall at all times abide by the following:

- I shall strive to maintain the highest levels of professional conduct in relation to my clients, my colleagues and the community
- I will always provide the highest possible standard of care to my clients
- I recognise each of my clients as an individual, consisting of mind, body and soul. I commit to support the development and health of the whole being
- I encourage clients to be self responsible in realising their own truth
- I recognise that the responsibility for choice before, during, and after a session is the prerogative of the client with whom I work
- I will respect my client's rights, dignity, needs, wishes and values and will not judge, criticise or blame clients with whom I work
- I will protect the confidentiality of all professionally acquired information, and disclose such information only when properly authorised or when legally obligated to do so
- I commit to continually improving and expanding my professional skills, knowledge, understanding and techniques in order to improve the level of benefit I am able to offer my clients
- I acknowledge the need to refer my clients to other professionals whenever necessary
- I agree to practice my profession in accordance with relevant State and Commonwealth laws
- I shall never criticise, condemn or otherwise denigrate a member of the healing or any allied profession whilst in the presence of a client or other lay persons

31st January 2008